World Book Day

We had such a fantastic turn out for World Book Day, thank you to everyone!

Primary School Places September 2019

You will be notified of your child's allocated school place for September on April 16th. It is your right to defer entry into Reception class for your child, dependent on their date of birth, until later in the school year. The primary school are obliged then to keep open your reception class place until they start. There are terms and conditions surrounding this and further details can be found in the document, "Starting School, Deferring or Delaying Admission". This document can be found under the Parents and Visitors tab, "How to Help your Child", on our website. If you wish to consider this, your child may retain their place with us at the nursery into next year. For further details and to register an interest please speak to Mrs Adams or a class teacher by April 20th to discuss this further.

Comic Relief cake sale

Thank you to everyone who purchased, donated or baked cakes for our cake sale. Details of how much has been raised for Comic Relief will be in next week's newsletter.

FoTN

A huge thanks to all those who attended the AGM today, a fantastic response! For those wishing to attend the next meeting, it will be held here on Thursday 21st March at 9am.

Nurture Room Hire

The advertisement is for Truro Nursery School's Nurture Room Hire. It features the school's logo, a 'Special Offer!' section with a photo of the room, and a blue text box with details. The offer states that any booking received for a weekend children's party by the end of March 19, will cost only £45.00. The text box provides further information about the facility, including its use as a meeting room or for parties, and lists the hire rates: £50.00 for a weekday party and £11.00 for a weekend party. Contact information for the school is also provided.
